
COUNTYBANK ANNOUNCES NEW GREER FINANCIAL CENTER GRAND OPENING

Greer, S.C. — Countybank is excited to announce it will celebrate the grand opening of its new financial center in Greer on February 8. This will serve as Countybank’s second financial center in the Greer market; Countybank’s existing location on Trade Street opened in 2018.

The new financial center will be conveniently located at 530 West Wade Hampton Boulevard with service offerings ranging from personal and business banking needs such as checking, saving, and loans, to insurance services. The new location will operate as a full-service financial center, designed to meet all financial needs. Customers will also have access to a drive-thru and 24/7 ATM.

“We are thrilled to expand our services as the city of Greer and surrounding areas continue to grow,” said Ken Harper, Chief Banking Officer for Countybank. “Our dedicated financial center team will continue to provide the exceptional financial service Countybank is known for.”

Countybank has hired a talented financial center team that will run its new location in Greer and is pleased to have Christopher Kidwell serving as the location’s Financial Center Manager. In this role, he will be responsible for managing financial center operations, leading the team, and handling personal lending needs. Kidwell joined Countybank in 2018 and most recently served as Consumer and Business Relationship Manager for Countybank’s Pelham Road financial center. He is also a participant in Leadership Greer.

In addition to Kidwell, Countybank welcomes Amanda Selvey, who will serve as Universal Associate. In this role she will be responsible for supporting customer needs, including account opening and relationship management as well as providing teller line assistance when needed. Selvey joins Countybank with more than 10 years of office management experience, having previously served in banking sales and customer service roles in Greer.

Finally, Adella Henderson and Natalia Prokhor will serve as Tellers at the new financial center location. Henderson joins Countybank with previous bank experience as an account manager, and Prokhor joins the bank with previous experience as a teller and mortgage loan officer.

“We are excited to have Chris transition into this new role and welcome Amanda, Adella, and Natalia to the Countybank family,” said Kevin Duncan, Greer Market Executive for Countybank. “They will serve as the face of our new location and provide a much-needed expansion of our products and services to the Greer community.”
